Subject: $250,000 Contract for Reinventing the Wheel?

Comment: I am a resident of Lisle, and I watched the County Board meeting on March 10th. Board Member Lucy Evans voted no on a contract to pay Michael Baker International $250,000 to build a GIS application for the Stormwater Management Department. Evans said, "That's like dumping money into an old car with no plans to buy a new car. What happens if the car breaks down before we buy the new car?"

Why are we spending money to support legacy technology? Did any engineers at the county even try the lower cost alternative that Evans suggested?

My property taxes keep going up, and I want assurances that my tax dollars are not paying for fancy software that we don't need. I will be following this issue more closely. Please make sure DuPage County is keeping up with current engineering practices and not dumping money into old technology.

Comment:	I find it very unprofessional of the county clerk and the county to stand against any federal agency. I know I would feel better knowing we have someone there making sure we have a LAWFUL and fair election. NO ILLEGAL should be voting in this county. The video I saw of the county clerk was shameful and I would be happy to see her gone from office. I really hope the federal government not only show up but looks into the county business. If your denying a federal agency then there must be wrong doing.
