The state passed the budget for the next fiscal year and lawmakers did divert about $150 million dollars from sales taxes on motor fuel which was a new key source of funding for operations throughout the six county area.

CTA, Metra and PACE have all expanded service and partnerships throughout the region with the new funding.

11. OLD BUSINESS

Member Zay thanked the Division of Transportation for their assistance in Bartlett.

12. NEW BUSINESS

Member Krajewski inquired as to the process of changing the speed limit on Highland Avenue, and Director Travia stated he would have the results of the Traffic Study at the next Transportation Committee meeting in August. Discussion was held.

13. ADJOURNMENT

With no further business, Member Garcia moved and Member Zay seconded a motion to adjourn the meeting. The motion was approved on voice vote, all "Ayes", motion carried and the meeting was adjourned at 10:31 AM.
