Subject: Subject: Urgent Civil Rights Crisis Hidden in a Divorce Case – DuPage County
[REDACTED]

DuPage County Board

Comment: Date: May 5, 2025

Dear Members of the DuPage County Board,

I appreciate you taking a few moments to read this message. I am reaching out to urge this Board to investigate why Chief Judge Bonnie Wheaton and the Presiding Judge over family court continue to ignore a developing crisis at the DuPage County Courthouse. What began as a divorce case has now escalated into a civil rights, human rights, and judicial misconduct emergency—currently being reassigned for the fifth time.

Despite many court orders granting me financial relief, not a single one has been enforced. Judge James Orel signed an order for my spouse, Dr. Sample to appear in person around November 2024, but all four judges refused to enforce their own court orders. The judges and court leadership have allowed my spouse, Dr. Madison Sample, to repeatedly violate both court orders and federal laws without consequence. My case reflects a pattern of conduct consistent with RICO elements, due process violations, economic abuse, judicial bias, and misconduct under color of law. I need someone unafraid to stand for justice—even when it involves holding judges accountable.

As a result of this systemic failure:

My home is in foreclosure.

My salon building is scheduled for a sheriff's sale on May 28, 2025.

I continue to suffer devastating financial and emotional harm, all sanctioned by a system intended to protect its citizens.

The DuPage County Courthouse is in urgent need of ethical oversight and an independent investigation.

I am ready and willing to provide documentation outlining the broader pattern of constitutional, civil, and human rights violations, and I would be grateful for the opportunity to share my story and the full record in detail.

Take Notice-Judges Kenton Skarin, James Orel, Neal Cerne, and Susan Alvarado have consistently violated my constitutional rights, due process, and my ADA Accommodation Rights. They have aided and abetted Dr. Madison Sample in unlawful and fraudulent actions while breaking Federal Laws.

I am requesting that the DuPage County Board address this matter in any way possible.

Respectfully,

Jackie Sample
