Overview of the National Association of Counties (NACo) and member benefits – Brian Namey, Chief Public Affairs Officer, NACo

Brian Namey, Chief Public Affairs Officer from NACo gave an overview of the NACo member benefits. He discussed NACo's mission, vision and priorities. Mr. Namey pointed out the numerous programs including the Online Resource Hub, Opioid Solutions, Mental Health First Aid, NACo County Tech Exchange, Cybersecurity for Counties, the Prescription Drug Discount Program and iCivics which can be used in classrooms. Many of these resources have been used by our Technology department. Mr. Namey invited all Board Members to attend the 2023 NACo Annual Conference in Travis County, Austin, Texas taking place July 21 through July 24. Member Rutledge also recommended Board Members to attend.

Mary Keating, Director of Community Services, asked Brian Namey to speak about NACo's Large Urban Caucus and also encouraged Board Members to take part.

Joe McCoy, Executive Director from ISACo spoke on the relationship between NACo and ISACo as well as how they are set up to work together quickly at the state and federal level when legislation is moving quickly. Chair DeSart thanked Mr. McCoy for his responsiveness.
