7. CHAIR'S REPORT

Chair Conroy made the following remarks:

It's hard for me to imagine, but the groundbreaking for the Crisis Recovery Center is now less than two weeks away. Please join us on Monday, April 8th at 10 a.m. at the DuPage County Health Department for this important event. We believe the CRC will be a County centerpiece for mental health and substance use treatment, providing a new gold standard in behavioral health care for our residents. You may have seen the tagline on the event invitation which states, "The Journey to Wellness Begins Here."

I want to thank each of you for being an important part of that journey. You have stepped up and provided millions in financial support. You've all learned and understood the importance of the CRC and the transformative role it will play in providing better mental health and addiction services in our community.

Together, we will end the nightmare too many families endure as they struggle to find a place for their loved one in crisis...seeking diagnosis, treatment and a plan for the future. You have played an integral role in helping those families and making this concept a reality. I hope you will join me on April 8th.
