RE: Incumbent Worker Training Application – C. Cretors & Company

Founded by Charles Cretors in 1885, C. Cretors has been at the forefront of revolutionizing the popcorn industry. Since inception, C. Cretors has diversified its food equipment business into cabinetry, warming and scaling devices.

C. Cretors works closely with its customers to ensure that products are maximizing the business opportunities available in their respective industries. They hold multiple patents and areas of high value/low transparency. To protect these assets, it is imperative to upgrade its loss prevention side of the business. C. Cretors has identified a training/service to reduce loss prevention and shrinkage. In addition, trainees will learn equipment and safety fundamentals, work planning, and meter usage.

C. Cretors will put 4 employees through this training that will receive industry recognized certificates of completion in OSHA, NETA, NEC, ANSI and NFPA 70E.
